

---

In the Interest of:

Order to Appear

Case No.

---

A hearing was held on _____, 20__, in the above-referenced matter with (list appearances)

Pursuant to Sec. 48.23(2)(b)3, the court orders:

1. _____ is/are required to appear for all hearings unless expressly excused by the court.

2. Failure to appear, unless excused by the court, may be found by the court to be egregious and without clear and justifiable excuse. Failure to appear at consecutive hearings is presumed egregious and without clear and justifiable excuse.

3. If the court finds a failure to appear egregious and without clear and justifiable excuse, the court may enter a default judgment upon being presented with sufficient testimony to support the allegations of the petition.

4. If a default judgment is granted, a dispositional hearing will be scheduled no earlier than the third business day after the default is entered.

Dated this ____ day of _____, 20__

By the Court:

---

Todd L. Ziegler
Circuit Court Judge – Branch I